

JOB AGREEMENT

Application is hereby made for a job account for the job described on the attached job information sheet. The applicant represent that applicant is solvent and that the information furnished in connection with this application is complete and accurate and acknowledges that _____ and its operating companies (Supplier) can rely thereon, Applicant further represents that all materials will be used on this job.

If the application is accepted, Supplier will furnish materials under terms hereinafter agreed under a separate account for the job, and furnish a monthly statement of account for said job.

If, after acceptance of this application, applicant breaches any terms of this agreement or defaults on any obligation owed to Supplier or it Supplier reasonably deems itself commercially insecure and gives applicant notice of same, Supplier shall have the right to suspend performance hereunder and pursue remedies against applicant so provided in this agreement or by law.

Applicant agrees to submit monthly draws to the General Contractor of record within the time frame outlined per the contract between applicant and General Contractor to insure timely progress payments are issued for the material supplied, within 10 days after receipt of each draw on the job, applicant will pay Supplier the total amount owing for material furnished by Supplier on account for the job. No retainage will be withheld by applicant from payments owed to Supplier.

If, for any reason, applicant fails to receive payment on the job from the General Contractor, applicant will at request of Supplier take all action necessary to exercise applicant's lien rights or bond rights or both. Further, Supplier shall have the option to exercise Supplier's lien and/or bond rights or pursue applicant for the indebtedness incurred hereunder. Applicant understands that ultimately, Supplier holds applicant as the financial responsible party and reserves all rights to pursue applicant to meet their obligations to Supplier as such.

Even if applicant fails to receive payment on account for the job, applicant is fully liable for indebtedness incurred under this agreement and applicant agrees to pay all amount due for materials supplied for the job no later than 60 days after delivery.

Whether affixing electronic or written signature below, Applicant hereby represents that they are authorized to enter into this agreement with Supplier and binds the business they represent under all laws in all jurisdiction that may be applicable.

Accepted by Supplier:

Applicant Signature: _____ Company Representative: _____

Title of Applicant: _____ Title: _____

Dated: _____ Dated: _____